ASSOCIATION OF DEFENSE TRIAL ATTORNEYS INFORMATIONAL SHEET FOR MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

A trial lawyer doing principally defense work in insurance and self-insurer activities, with more than five (5) years defense trial experience is eligible. Corporate counsel and employees of insurance companies or self-insureds are ineligible for membership.

Prime Members: The first lawyer member from a firm is the prime member. There can only be one Prime Member from any town, city, or metropolitan area of less than a million population. One additional Prime Member is allowed for each additional one million population, or portion thereof, for a city or metropolitan area.

Associate Members: Partners or associates of a Prime Member are eligible and encouraged for membership as Associate Members, at the will of the Prime Member.

Membership Dues: Prime Members' annual dues for the fiscal year April 1st to April 1st are $275 regardless of the size of the city. Associates' dues are $200. In addition,

- (1) The Prime Member is expected to be a member of Defense Research Institute (DRI).
- (2) Associate Membership terminates upon the death or disqualification for membership of the Prime Member. However, the Associate Member may then apply for the Prime Membership, if qualified.

Membership Term: The membership year for a Prime Member or an Associate Member extends from April 1st to April 1st of each year. If a new Prime Member or an Associate Member joins between December 1st and April 1st, such membership will start immediately and will include the following full year of April 1st to April 1st.

PLEASE NOTE, HOWEVER, that in the event that the Prime Member from a firm terminates his/her membership in the Association, all Associate Members from that firm will be terminated as of the same date as the Prime Member, no matter what the condition of their dues.
